

YA GOT TROUBLE

from "the Music Man"

Word and Music by Meredith Willson

Arranged by Dave Briner

HAROLD begins: Either you are closing your eyes to a situation you don't wish to acknowledge, or you are not aware of the calibre of disaster indicated by the presence of a pool table in your community. --- Well, ya got:

HAROLD (beginning at measure 86):

Mothers of River City! Heed the warning before it's too late! Watch for the tell-tale signs of corruption! The moment your son leaves the house, does he rebuckle his knickerbockers below the knee? Is there a nicotine stain on his index finger? A dime nove hidden in the corn crib? Is he memorizing jokes our of Captain Billy's Whiz Bang? Are certain words creeping into his conversation? Words like, "swell," and "so's your old man"?? If so, my friends -- (slap) -- (slap) Ya got.....
